

Guidelines for Healthcare: Walls & Ceilings

Description: This USG program examines the Health Care Environment by studying the Guidelines for Design and Construction of Health Care Facilities, Facilities Guidelines Institute, 2010 Edition. "Section 2.1-7.2.3.4 Ceilings" of the Guidelines describes the attributes of ceilings required for patient, semirestricted, restricted, dietary and laundry areas. It details the criteria to provide ceilings that prevent the habitation and spread of viruses and bacteria.
